| Shakedown 1979                                    |
|---|
| Cool kids never (1) the time                      |
| On a live wire right up off the street            |
| You and I should meet                             |
| Junebug skipping like a stone                     |
| With the (2) pointed at the dawn                  |
| We were sure (3) never see an end to it all       |
| And I don't even care to (4) these zipper blues   |
| And we don't know                                 |
| Just where our bones will (5) to dust, I guess    |
| Forgotten and absorbed into the earth below       |
| Double cross the vacant and the bored             |
| They're not sure just what we have in the store   |
| Morphine city slippin (6) (7) to see              |
| We don't even care as restless as we are          |
| We feel the pull in the land of a thousand guilts |
| And poured cement, lamented and assured           |
|   |

| To the lights and towns below                      |
|--|
| Faster than the speed of sound                     |
| Faster than we thought we'd go                     |
| Beneath the sound of hope                          |
| Justine never knew the rules                       |
| Hung (8) with the freaks and the ghouls            |
| No apologies ever need be made                     |
| I know you better than you fake it, to see         |
| And we don't even care to shake these zipper blues |
| And we (9) know                                    |
| Just where our bones will rest to dust, I guess    |
| Forgotten and absorbed into the earth below        |
| The street heats the (10) of sound                 |
| As you can see there's no one around               |
