On the first part of the journey,	After nine days, I let the horse run free,
I was looking at all the life.	'Cause the desert had turned to sea.
There were plants and birds. and rocks and things,	There were plants and birds, and rocks and things,
There was sand and hills and rings.	There was sand and hills and rings.
The first thing I met, was a fly with a buzz,	The ocean is a desert, with its life underground,
And the sky, with no clouds.	And a perfect disguise above.
The heat was hot, and the ground was dry,	Under the cities lies, a heart made of ground,
But the air was full of sound.	But the humans will give no love.
